THURSDAY MARCH 14, 1912

In the clamor of the crowded street,
In ourselves are triumph and defeat.

—Longfellow.

ost confidence in Taft? Well, Roosevelt may think so but we don't.

alking about what your city needs quite an art, but doing things is simpler and counts for lots more.

An eastern firm has received an order from China for 14,000 American flags. That will not go far with a population of over 400,000,000.

It must certainly be accounted for but the Vice-Presidential office has to be the only one in the land that has to go scouting around for a man to fill it.

he only honor for Roosevelt, if elected and elected is that of being first man to override the traditions of the States since the Declaration of Independence was signed.

Champ Clark is outspokenly for the sugar schedule. How can theocratic delegates from Hawaii get on the band wagon of Clark and expect to hold a friend at home.

city is measured by its average size—not by any particular section interest, and any city that gives precedence or special attention to one section as against another is standing on its own light.

It is hard to pick out the thirteen signals from the forty-eight bright stars in the flag now, as they all shine in the same magnitude. May it be the same Hawaii's turn to say, "We over, there, and make room for me."

end the roller towel after the public drinking cup and it will be a long time in the right direction. The roller towel, like the rolling stone gathers moss, but it gathers some things in an insidious standpoint that are to be dreaded.

ow the Superintendent of Public Works speaks against the harbor improvement plan that has unquestioned community endorsement. How many reasons have to be given to convince the Superintendent of Public Works that he should resign.

Unable to start his third party and being a beautiful swarthy man called into secret conference, Andrews is trying to make himself not by mixing up the Taft League and making trouble for the Civic Federation. Hasn't this town made it clear that Andrews' "leadership" is wanted.

uke Kahanamoku is apparently in the hands of mainland friends. They be as satisfactory as Honolulu friends would be and assure him a fair deal. For a boy who has been off the island of Oahu before, he is making a great record, and will be greater still if he shows he can "go it alone" and still beat anything in sight.

JUST ANOTHER FALSEHOOD.

Wise had a conference yesterday with W. R. Farrington, in the course of which he announced the fact that he had "resigned" from the Taft League. He uttered these typically Wise words:

"I don't care. That crowd is licked anyhow, and I intend to get out before they know it."

This will doubtless be virtuously denied. It is natural that it should be, but no denial can alter the facts, which are as stated.—Advertiser news item.

This statement appearing in the Advertiser is a pure and unadulterated falsehood, deliberately printed to misrepresent the situation.

John Wise did not have any conference with W. R. Farrington and so far as Mr. Farrington knows John Wise has not at any time expressed the sentiments used in the second paragraph of the statement.

Naturally the Advertiser, knowing it was publishing a deliberate falsehood, tries to cover itself by assuming that its lies will be nailed.

UNDERWOOD'S SCHEME UNPOPULAR.

It appears probable that the Democrats have a majority large enough to carry the free sugar scheme through the House of Representatives but the way is not to be an easy one or without vigorous opposition in their own ranks.

The Democratic Ways and Means Committee it seems, kept their radical sugar game very much to themselves, evidently realizing their free trade proposal was a most unpopular one. This aroused a general protest and Congressman Broussard of Louisiana, the southern sugar State, issued the following statement which will no doubt be elaborated in the discussion on the floor of the House today, if anything more than perfunctory discussion is allowed:

"The secret caucus—the dark room operations—the blind-man's-buff method of legislation, will not answer modern thought on matters affecting the public welfare. I fail to see the force of this. If a man is doing a right thing, he should invite criticism. This is legislation by caucus, with every member blindfolded. I informed Underwood that this system of legislation would not do. I, for one, will not stand for it. The people of the country have a right to know what is going on here."

THE DELEGATE AND THE PRESIDENT.

There is no doubt that the news which Delegate Kuhio cabled to Manager McKinley of the Taft campaign, giving assurances of the certainty of a solid delegation for Taft to the Republican National convention, arrived at the psychological moment and was mighty welcome to the President and his associates.

This was not only ably set forth in the Bulletin's Washington letter from Correspondent Albert but is further verified from other sources. The New York Sun published the following from its Washington bureau:

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Prince Kalaniana'ole, Delegate to Congress from the Hawaiian Islands, sent the following cablegram to Congressman McKinley, who is in charge of the Taft headquarters here: "Depend on Hawaii delegates, six votes, instructed for Taft."

There has been some talk of insubordination in Prince Cupid's mid-Pacific district and the Roosevelt men have been bragging that the Hawaiian delegates would be bagged by them.

The Taft workers have been worried over conditions on the islands and it is said that the brunette prince was sent home to operate the steam roller.

In its issue of February 17, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, under the flash headline "Hawaii Instructs Her Six Delegate for Taft," publishes the following from its Washington correspondent:

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—With seven presidential headquarters in operation in Washington, the only real results seem to be recorded at those of President Taft and Speaker Champ Clark. They are the only ones who can point to delegates instructed for them to date.

President Taft added six delegates from Hawaii to his string today, according to advices received from Delegate Jonah K. Kalaniana'ole, commonly known as "Prince Cupid," the Delegate in Congress from the islands. The information was the more appreciated at the Taft headquarters and at the White House because Delegate Kalaniana'ole had favored an uninstructed delegation.

Of course the head-line writer in the office of the Globe-Democrat was a little premature in stating that the delegates had already been instructed, as the convention has not yet been held.

The point is that the President's supporters want the six delegates from Hawaii and the assurance from the Delegate to Congress that the Republicans of Hawaii would stand by Mr. Taft, eliminated a source of worry.

Now it is up to the honorable and thinking rank and file of the Republican party in this Territory to see to it that they do not allow such a petty squabble among the known supporters of the President that they will fail to deliver the goods. That is exactly what the mix-up in connection with the Taft League threatens, provided it is allowed to continue.

It is time for these men to assert themselves if they are thoroughly honest in their support of the President. The Frear-Kuhio business should be cut out not only in words, but in fact. Delegates for Taft should be the sole and only purpose of the activity in the precincts preliminary to the April convention.

If the situation of the past few weeks is continued, it is quite possible that the friends of the President would tell the Delegate that they could be depended upon to look out for Hawaii in tariff matters if the Delegate found he was being threatened at home. Such things have been known to happen.

But the Republicans of Hawaii ought to be big enough and broad-minded enough to quit petty squabbling and see that the Taft issue is so thoroughly stripped of all side plays and thus make it possible for the Delegate to return to Washington at an early date.

POWERS TO KEEP CHINA INTACT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—England, Russia, Germany and Japan have responded favorably to Secretary Knox's invitation to place themselves on record with the United States for the continued integrity of China and joint action without seeking individual advantage in any concerted movement of the powers which may become necessary in the present disturbances.

France, Italy and Austria, to whom copies of the note were sent, have not responded.

The interchange was called forth by Secretary Knox's letter on February 2 to Count von Bernstorff, the ambassador from Germany, in which the views and the attitude of the United States toward the situation in China were made a subject of record.

Diplomats generally interpreted the note as an indication that Germany and the United States were agreed and would stand together to continue the integrity of China, while at the same time it was construed as an invitation to other powers to place themselves on record.

In this country the average is about eighty-seven telephones for each one thousand inhabitants.

According to the latest figures, Uncle Sam's "farm hand" payroll represents $645,512,000.

"AT HOME" AND EXHIBIT INTRODUCE PAINTER

William Adam of Pacific Grove, Cal., will be given an introduction to Honolulu's art-loving men and women tomorrow at an "At Home" given by the Kiloheana Art League, at the art league rooms, Miller and Beretania streets.

Mr. Adam has been painting for some weeks on the other side of this island and is said to have a fine collection of sketches and paintings as the result. The paintings will be on exhibition tomorrow and Saturday, at the art league rooms, and the "At Home" tomorrow, from 3 to 6, will give the many interested people an opportunity of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Adam.

New York City expects to save $200,000 a year by selling its garbage instead of paying for its disposition.
